SAVAGES TO MEET VANDALS

Game Will Be Played Tonight on Normal Floor.—Teams Closely Contested.

NAMES OF ENTIRE SQUAD PUBLISHED

Lefevre, Wynstra, Moore, Pickering, and Burpee to Uphold Normal School.

The basketball season for the Normal's first team will open this evening with a game with the University of Idaho varsity. Our second team has already participated in one scrimmage game with the Lewis and Clark High School and one regular scheduled game with the Ritzville High School.

Lineup

The men that will probably participate in the game tonight are as follows: Forwards, Pickering and Moore; center, Lefevre; guards, Burpee and Wynstra; substitutes, Byars, Everett Reed, Ashley. This list may be altered some at the discretion of Coach Eustis. This game promises to be one of the best games of the season, as there is very keen rivalry between these two teams.

Prospects Good

Prospects for the Normal basketball season this year are very bright. There are nearly 30 men turning out every night, many of these men with several years' basketball experience, both in high school and schools of higher learning.

The men who are turning out and a short record of their experience is as follows:

Quimby Lefevre, Medical Lake, four years of high school basketball, and this is his third year on the Normal team; Stanley Wynstra, Cheney, three years high school, two years Normal; Wade Moore, Fairfield, three years high school and two years Normal; Art Byers, Spangle, two years high school, two years Spokane University and the W. S. C. "Frosh"; Jack Pickering, Seattle, three years Lincoln high school, one year W. S. C. "Frosh" and the W. S. C. varsity squad.

Lloyd Burpee, Fairfield, four years high school, W. S. C. "Frosh" one year and W. S. C. varsity squad; Verne Ashley, Coeur d'Alene, three years high school; Everett Reed, Johnson, three years Lamont High School; Earl Reed, Johnson, three years Lamont High School; Arthur Heppner, Touchet, four years high school; Maurice Brislawn, Sprague, one year high school; Clarence Pratt, Steptoe, two years high school; James Swannack, Lamont, three years high school.

Carl Tanke, Harrington; William Thomas, Lind, two years high school; Claude Turner, Deer Park, one year high school; Clarence Wynia, Cheney; Ralph Hubbard, Spangle, two years high school; Clarence Men Muir, Colville, three years high school; N. D. Showalter, Jr., Cheney, two years high school; Leslie Mason, Cheney, one year high school; Milton Miller, Endicott, four years high school; Ernest Cash, Palouse; George Andrews, Thompson Falls, Montana, four years high school; Theodore Sheppard, Palouse, two years high school.

Chester Magnetti, Palouse, two years high school; Dallas McMichael, Spangle, four years high school; Arthur Luttrupp, Orofino, Idaho, four years high school; Fred Lewis, Fairfield; E. Gilbert, Latah, three years high school; Albert Owes, Spangle; Harry Knobel, Latah; Norman Peterson, Cheney, one year high school; Dell Russell, Mesa; Thomas Holloway, Tyler, four years high school; Clarence Shepherd, Latah, three years high school.

Some names are omitted from the above list due to a lack of the proper information.

Lewis and Clark Game

Last Friday afternoon the Lewis and Clark High School squad participated in a practice scrimmage with the Normal's second string, both teams playing 12 of their men. The score was 40 to 40. The tie was not played off owing to the game being merely a scrimmage practice for both teams. After the game the Lewis and Clark High School boys and their two coaches, Hal Orion and "Squinty" Hunter were entertained at dinner at Sutton Hall.

SOCIAL CALENDAR FOR QUARTER IS FULL

Students and Faculty Are Asked to Cooperate With Dean to Avoid Conflicts.

Since there are only ten week-end dates left for at least 15 social affairs to be scheduled this quarter, it will be necessary for the students and faculty to cooperate with the dean of women in order to avoid conflicts and overtaxed plans for any week.

As the auditorium is being used both for classes under Miss Turner and debate work under Dr. Tieje, in addition to lessons on the organ and practice hours, it will be necessary for students and faculty to consult the dean of women in regard to the hours that the auditorium is reserved for class work.

A tentative program is printed below. This program is subject to change only on consultation with the dean.

YEP KANUM AWARDS LETTERS TO TWELVE

Co-ed Hikers Plan Sleighing, Riding, and Coasting for Winter Sports.

At a recent meeting of the Yep Kanum Club letters were awarded to the following girls: Lanie Weigelt, Cora Carbaugh, Edna Baker, Alice Anderson, Loretta Briggs, Ellen Murphy, Nellie Hoskins, Beulah Long, Velma Frizzell, Ruth Barney, Georgia Miller, and Annalee Puller.

These girls have hiked the required number of miles. Others have qualified for their letters, but as there were only 12 letters at hand, the first 12 girls who handed in their mileage received letters.

Skating, sleigh riding and coasting are sports planned by the club for the winter quarter. All girls are looking forward to participating in these sports.

SOCIAL PLAY HOUR BECOMES POPULAR

Owing to Crowded Calendar, Next Event Will Be Held January Tenth.

The second social play hour, which was held Thursday evening, December 13, in the gymnasium, was attended by twice as many students as the first one.

Dean Spaeth says, "The non-dancers who complain most about not having anything besides dancing are the people who are never there." According to the dean, this is primarily for those people, and they should come. However, the attendance was large enough to warrant a continuance of the non-dance social hour.

As there is so much planned for this week, there will be no play hour the Thursday after Christmas vacation. The next one will be held January 10 and on alternate Thursdays, the schedule for the winter quarter being January 10 and 24, February 7 and 21, and March 6.

The committee to take charge next time has not been appointed. It will meet on the Thursdays when there is no social hour.

MAE STALDER IS SENIOR HALL PREXY

Esther Johnson Is Vice President, and Ethel Warwick Secretary-Treasurer.

Senior Hall elected their new officers for the winter quarter last Monday night.

Mae Stalder, a Senior B, was elected president to succeed Edna Miller, and has already moved into the president's suite. Esther Johnson was elected vice president, and Ethel Warwick secretary-treasurer.

Leta Bostwick was elected reporter for the quarter, and Tony Goff chairman of the entertainment committee.

Roughhouse Disturbs Peaceful Existence of Sutton Hall Inmates

Perhaps the most serious act of roughhousing at Sutton Hall so far this year occurred one evening last week. Bertram Farrelly, entering his dormer at a late hour, shot on the lights, much to the dislike of a score of drowsy bedfellows. Among the latter was Clarence Shepherd, whose wrath quite overmastered his judgment, for though Farrelly turned off the light without long deliberation, he was unceremoniously set upon by the towering Clarence.

Then it was that the legs of Farrelly served the miscreant well, while those of his assailant proved the undoing of Shepherd, for when the latter had advanced to within punting distance he let fly a well-primed kick which instead of coming in contact with the intended anatomy of the sprinting Bertram, hooked a bystander steam heat radiator. There was a crack and a thump as of a big toe going out of joint, followed by a guttural groan.

That is why Shep walks with a distinct limp and why he prefers wearing house slippers instead of boots.

HOLIDAY GREETINGS

The snow is in the back yard;
Christmas time draws nigh,
And oh, that I had purchased
The things I meant to buy!

I wished to buy some hosiery
For my sweetest dear,
And send my friends some greeting
For the glad New Year.

I wished to buy some Camels
For friends along the street,
And lemon drops and rubber boots
And little pigs with feet.

I thought I'd get some poetry
That wasn't out of gear,
But since I didn't, let me wish you
"Merry Christmas, Glad New Year!"
—Victor Smith

PLAY HOUR TONIGHT HONORING U. OF I.

Dance to Be Held Following Basketball Game on the Local Floor.

Following the basketball game with the University of Idaho tonight in the Normal gymnasium, an extended play hour, honoring the Moscow visitors, will be held under the auspices of the dance committee. Music will be provided by the regular orchestra under the direction of Kenneth Davis, who is arranging special music for the occasion.

Since the dance is to be strictly informal, no extra charge for admission will be made.

The dance committee's policy of issuing blue and red cards as an evidence of improper dancing seems not to be clearly understood. Here is the regulation:

A blue card will be given as a warning to any student whose dancing may be considered improper by the dance committee. A red card will be given to dancers upon the commission of a second offense. A student who receives a red card will be required to appear before the dance committee at its first meeting on the Monday following the play hour.

SUTTON HALL MEN ELECT EARL REED

Dormitory Boys Elect Officers and New Members of Corridor Paddling Squad.

Earl Reed was elected president of the Sutton Hall group at a house meeting held last week.

Other officers include: Vice president, Everett Reed; secretary, Clark Robinson; reporter, Gilbert Hartman; chairman of the entertainment committee, Fred Lewis.

Clarence Shepherd was chosen by the house to serve on the discipline committee. Maury Nelson, house manager and chairman of this committee, was appointed early in the year by the faculty to serve as head of the discipline force.

Floor cops elected to look after the enforcement of law and rules are: Guy Stalker, Dell Russell, Hubert Kinder, and Lloyd Burpee.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM INTERESTING FEATURE

Carols Are Sung, and Tableau Presented Illustrating Corregio's "Holy Night."

The Christmas program, given yesterday afternoon under the direction of Mr. Fouser, in the Normal auditorium, proved an unusually interesting feature. Christmas carols were sung by Normal and Training School students. A selection given by the school orchestra sent forth a happy Christmas spirit to everyone. The musicians received their usual praise.

A tableau, illustrating the song, "Holy Night," was arranged by Miss Swerer of the art department. The scene was taken from Corregio's "Holy Night."

Other numbers were given and well received.

The Christmas tree in the rotunda was lighted after the program. Students and Training School boys and girls thronged about the tree as it was illuminated. The usual Christmas presents were not given, since the entire student body approved the suggestion of giving the money usually spent for presents to help the students in Europe.

LEONA GOFF IS ELECTED PRESIDENT

Iva Shepardson Vice President and Fred Lager Secretary-Treasurer Student Body.

FLOYD CHAPMAN TO HEAD JUNIOR CLASS

Ruth Stram New President of Senior B's and Iva Shepardson of Senior A's.

Leona Goff was elected president, Iva Shepardson vice president, and Fred Lager secretary-treasurer of the Associated Students of the Cheney Normal at the regular quarterly election held Tuesday morning.

The new president, Leona Goff, is a graduate of the Waverly High School, and has had two years' of teaching experience, having taught one year in Whitman county and one year in Spokane county. She served as vice president of the student body of the Normal last quarter, until the resignation of Bess Roberts, when she automatically became president.

Iva Shepardson, who was elected vice president, is a graduate of the Baker, Ore., high school, and has had three years of teaching experience. She has attended the Teachers' College at San Jose, California.

Fred Lager, the new secretary-treasurer, is a graduate of the Rockford High School, class of '23. He is editor of the State Normal School Journal.

Classes Elect

Most of the classes have reorganized for the winter quarter. The advanced students, Senior C's and special students are the only classes not yet organized.

At a meeting December 13, the Junior class elected Floyd Chapman, president; Edna Shepardson, vice president; George McNair, secretary-treasurer, and Miss Martin, class adviser.

Ruth Stram was elected president of the Senior B's; Robert Farnsworth, vice president; Rachel Shepard, secretary-treasurer, and Miss Martin and Mr. Barber, faculty advisers.

At a class meeting of the Senior A's held Thursday, the following officers were elected: Iva Shepardson, president; Vina Meehan, vice president; Ruth Euler, secretary-treasurer; Ethel Warwick, reporter.

The secretary was appointed to investigate the matter of caps and pins for the class. Photographs were discussed. The class will decide on the studio at the first meeting after the holidays.

Class meetings will be held every Wednesday at 3:45, in room 215.

MISS DENO RETURNS FROM CHICAGO TRIP

Winner of Montgomery-Ward Home Economics Prize Has Enjoyable Visit.

Selena Deno, winner of the Montgomery, Ward & company prize of a trip to Chicago, offered to the most outstanding girl in home economics work in the state of Washington, returned from Chicago December 11.

Miss Deno was a member of a party which consisted of Helen Brown, of Spokane, who acted as Miss Deno's team mate in a pattern drafting demonstration given in the Boys' and Girls' Clubs Building at the Stock Show grounds in Chicago; Robert Zindell, a Kennewick boy, who won the Armour pig prize; Audrey Wieneken, who won the Oregon State prize in home economics work, and Almina White, State Extension Specialist on Club Methods, of W. S. C., who acted as chaperon.

While in Chicago the party visited the Wilson, Swift and Armour Packing Plants, and the Montgomery-Ward Plant, at which all the home economics girls were presented with copies of Fannie Farmer's "Boston Cooking School Cook Book."

The girls made their headquarters at the live stock show grounds, where they attended and conducted demonstrations.

Eustis Referees

Coach Eustis refereed a game of basketball at Fairfield Friday night between Whitworth College and Fairfield High School.

Home Economics Club Meets

At a recent meeting, the Ellen H. Richards Club decided to meet on alternate Wednesday nights in order to embroider a dining room linen set. The club has been filling boxes of candy, which will be presented to friends of the organization.

The sixth grade children sang for the Parent-Teachers' Association, Wednesday, December 12.

MONROE HALL

Miss Alice Beck of Post Falls, Ida., is visiting her sister, Celia, during the week.

Gasoline Alley has chosen Helga Johnson as chief keeper of order in the corridor. As she intends to preserve quiet by appointing a new assistant each week, the disturbers will have to keep on the lookout dodging the right one each time.

Miss Heller, national Y. W. C. A. secretary for the northwest, was a guest at Monroe Hall during her stay.

Among those who visited Spokane either Saturday or Sunday were the following: Misses Bertha Davis, Muriel Tollefson, Frances Allen, Esther Phelps, Leora Repp, Alice Shields, Lydia Weitz, Mary Echard, Dorothea Dowty, Mabel Seeley, and Linnie Nichols.

Alice Clinesmith had as her guest over the week-end her sister, Maude Clinesmith.

Who says that hiking is a thing of the past? Barbara Wilson and Jessie Smith prefer to disagree. They say the hiking is fine to Fish Lake, and they ought to know, for they made a special trip after kinnikinnick.

The Misses Mary Ash and Frances De Voe spent the week-end in Deer Park.

A taffy pull is great sport, except for some minor things, such as blisters, according to the heroic ones who suffered injured lily-white hands. Despite the blisters, the taffy was much relished by the following girls: Mary Barlow, Florence Stanford, Theresa Johnson, Mary Torphy, and Kathryn Bernard.

Gasoline Alley's delegation of Christmas shoppers in Spokane was composed of these residents: Velma Sloan, Jackie Tillquist, Olive Bloom, Emma Hofstetter, Mary Kruger, and Lorraine Smith.

Florence Stanford had as a dinner guest Sunday Mr. Burdette James of Spokane.

"Yes! We Have More Bobettes" is becoming the popular air around the Hall. Anna McHenry has finally succumbed to the lure of the scissors, after many, many weeks of temptation. Hip! Hip! for Anna! Who'll be the next?

It is rumored that Mabel Arnold and Lydia Kientzler made a sensation at Sutton Hall the other evening. We'll say it must have been some sensation, the way those Christmas seals sold. Why, they went like pancakes. It may have been just "pot luck," but we'll vouch it was the young ladies.

Emma Louise Morris visited in Greenacres Saturday and Sunday.

Friday night Jessie Smith, ex-corridor cop, of Bum's Retreat, with no more reason than to keep Sleep Hollow awake, crept up and down the Hollow squacking a squacker. Nothing happened. Sunday morning at 2 o'clock a sleepy Jessie Smith was mysteriously yanked out of bed by persons unknown. Now Jessie says she'll play no more pranks.

TRAINING SCHOOL

The Yuletide spirit is apparent in the Training School, plans having been formulated for Christmas festivities this week.

The first and second grades will enjoy a Christmas party and tree together. Similarly, the third and fourth, fifth and sixth, and seventh and eighth grades, respectively, will have parties and trees.

A short Christmas program will be given Friday, December 21, by the sixth grade class.

The group of pupils who will enter high school in January has charge of the seventh and eighth grade Christmas party.

The Art Department has been decorating the windows of the upper grade rooms with prettily colored paper, candle sticks, and wreaths.

Miss Ada Louise Bell and Miss Charlotte Lang attended the symphony concert of Miss Elena Gerhardt given at the American theater in Spokane, Friday, December 14.

Harry Long, Keith McDonald, Hilda Ewy, Helen Purvis, Loren Reeder, and Eloise Sherman have been promoted from the sixth grade to the seventh.

Mrs. H. W. Whitford is in charge of the fourth grade until after the holidays.

Miss Pannebaker states that the work in her department is beginning very auspiciously, and that the new teachers are taking hold of their work in a highly commendable manner.

The critic teachers will be widely scattered during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Whitford will remain in Cheney.

Miss Martha Williams will go to Walla Walla.

Miss Helga Oyen plans on leaving for North Dakota.

Mrs. Young will go to Nampa, Idaho.

Miss Dryden will spend her vacation at Peck, Idaho.

Miss Kuykendall will be at Olympia.

Miss Lang will spend Christmas at her home in Spokane.

Miss Pannebaker plans to go to the coast.

SENIOR HALL

Last Monday night Senior Hall had its annual Christmas party. This affair also welcomed into a hall a number of new girls. The large living room was decorated in holiday colors. In one corner stood the Christmas tree. Gifts were exchanged by the girls and then refreshments were served.

Christmas shopping called a number of the girls to Spokane over the week-end. Many expressed the idea that their shopping was mostly window, nevertheless they came back with diminished purses and a few parcels.

enjoyed a hamburger feed at the room of Lucille Bump and Dorothy Edwards. Those present were Irene Breum, Kathryn Smith, Marie Stevens, Frances Briscoe, and the hostesses.

Tony Goff entertained at an oyster "stew" party Wednesday night. After eating as long as the oysters lasted, the party, consisting of Edna Miller, Ethel Warwick, Marian Miller, Dud Hollis, and Tony Goff, adjourned to their rooms.

Maude Cogley spent the week-end at her home in Greenacres.

Not only does the living room speak of Christmas but some of the girls have bedecked their rooms. The girls of Rooms 104, 106 and 111 have installed small trees and other decorations.

The residents of Bob Inn, Alma Bennett, Velma Grass, Mildred Stache, and Orpha Strong, cooked their breakfast in the candy kitchen Sunday morning. They seemed glad when dinner time came.

Senior Hall was a busy place during this week, as Christmas called for a number of parties.

Room 104, whose inmates are Anna Lee Puller, Irene Norvell, Harriet Macomber, and Leta Bostwick, had as their guests Thursday night at a slumber party, Dorothy Billson, Amber Clark and Peggy Burke. Needless to say, everything was done but to slumber peacefully.

The members of one table in the dining room were the guests of Lucille Bump, Dit Edwards, and Naomi Tenney, Thursday night, at a Christmas party and feed. Those at the affair were Freda Shook, Elaine Ham, Irene Breum, Frances Briscoe, Marie Stevens, Kathryn Smith, and the hostesses.

Leila and Ruth Gritman, owners of Dew Drop Inn, were hostesses to Lois Richards and Leona Olsen Friday night. The time was spent consuming toast and cocoa.

A new organization has been formed in the Hall, "The Sappy Pi Phi's." Does anyone know who they are and what their purpose is?

SUTTON HALL

Three waiters to a table at Sutton Hall! Can you feature it? Imagine a trio from each of a dozen tables, all in action at the same time. Would it be merely confusion or a stampede? Mrs. Shinkle goes dizzy at the thought.

Ivan Dixon motored to Colfax and to Pullman Sunday.

Evans Holt was at his home in Fairfield over Saturday.

David Mahrt visited his parents at Reardan Sunday.

Dewey Sharp returned Saturday to Steptoe, where he spent Saturday at home.

The Misses Franchon Metz, Vera Johnson, and Lillian Stillson were Sunday dinner guests of Guy Stalker, Dell Russell, and Homer Davis.

EXCHANGES

The University of Minnesota plans to construct a new $750,000 stadium next spring, which will have a capacity of about 50,000.

Spokane College has formed a Knife and Arrow Club, which is an honorary society formed to establish and perpetuate the spirit and traditions of the school.

Sousa's famous band will be heard at the Lewis and Clark High School tonight.

A new sport, wrestling, will be taught at North Central, starting the second semester.

The co-eds of Community Hall at W. S. C. consoled themselves in the absence of dates during the scarlet fever ban with a smokeless smoker. Wrestling matches were the feature of the evening.

"W" Club Elects Farnsworth

The "W" Club, at a meeting Monday morning, elected Robert Farnsworth, of Bickleton, president; Wade Moore, vice president; Stanley Wynstra, secretary-treasurer; Ed Howe, sergeant-at-arms. A committee of three was appointed by the president to plan an initiation of the four new candidates for the "W" Club from the football season. These men will be initiated tonight at the basketball game between halves. The men to be initiated are Wendell "Babe" Laughon, Theo Sheppard, Jim Davis, and Dell Russell. The "W" club also voted to have all members wear their "W" sweaters at all basketball games participated in by the first, second, or girls' basketball teams.

OFF-CAMPUS

At their quarterly election the occupants of the Brown house passed around offices as follows: Thomas Monroe, president; Arthur Blauert, vice president; Fred Lager, treasurer; Carl Tanke, secretary; Archie Selde, assistant secretary; William Thomas, mascot.

Wieber Wynstra, who is teaching at Sprague, spent the week-end at his home in Cheney.

Fred Lager visited the poor farm at Spangle Sunday.

Tom Smith will visit relatives at Harpster, Idaho, during the Christmas vacation.

Thomas Monroe spent the week-end in Spokane. Archie Selde, Pa. Tanke and Arthur Blauert were visitors at Monroe Hall Sunday.

Miss Clara Moats and Miss Gertrude Short entertained Misses Iva and Edna Sheppard at a Sunday dinner given at the home of Mrs. F. A. Reed.

Miss Myrilla Wickertshelmer was a guest, during the week-end, of Miss Clista Casey at her beautiful ranch home near Connolly.

Miss Elinore Gilbert made her usual week-end visit to her home in Hilliard.

Miss Clara Moats and Miss Gertrude Short gave a delightful party, the middle of last week, for a group of friends. The joy makers were chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Damrell and Mrs. F. A. Reed. After tiring of the outdoor sport, they spent an enjoyable evening at the home of Mrs. Reed, where refreshments were served. They were entertained by music songs and games.

Word has been received that Miss Mary Hughes, who recently completed a two-year course in this institution, now signs her name Mrs. William Thomas. Congratulations.

"Maw" Nelson, assisted by "Paw," did the family shopping Saturday.

Miss Clista Casey was a guest Friday evening of the girls living at Mrs. Reeder's home.

Grace Burnett is visiting a few days with friends in Coeur d'Alene, before leaving for her home in Yakima.

Inez Lambert spent the week-end at her home near Cheney.

America Baker spent the week-end with friends in Spokane.

Thelma Hunter, accompanied by Gladys Hanna, spent Sunday at the Sacred Heart hospital with her father, who is ill.

Dorothy Nelson went to her home at Opportunity for the week-end.

Nell Rubie spent Saturday shopping in Spokane.

Bertha Hindman spent the week-end with her mother in Spokane.

Ritzville Game

Last Saturday night the Normal's second team traveled to Ritzville, where they met the high school basketball team of that place in a game which resulted in a victory for the Normal by a score of 17 to 13. There were eight men who made the trip with Coach Tyler, as follows: Everett Reed, Ashley, Mason, Heppner, Swanack, Pratt, Howe, and Claude Turner. Raymond F. Hawk of the faculty also accompanied the team. The game was very closely contested from beginning to end. The Normal men who starred were Verne Ashley, who made 12 of the Normal's points, and Everett Reed, who contributed the other five.

Second Team to Sprague

The second team journeyed to Sprague Wednesday night, but owing to the paper going to press too early for the results of this game, the story of the game will not appear until after the holidays.

GEORGE S. BUCHANAN ON MICHIGAN OPERA

Former Student of Cheney Normal is Member of Famed U. of Michigan Chorus.

George S. Buchanan, graduate of the Cheney Normal class of 1920, who is taking graduate work and assisting in the Department of Geology at the University of Michigan, was chosen a member of the cast for the opera, "Cotton Stocking," which began its eastern tour from Ann Arbor December 13.

The chorus will make its appearance in many of the larger cities of the east and middle west, including in its tour of 18 performances Washington, Cleveland, New York, Pittsburgh, Chicago, and Cincinnati.

Mr. Buchanan reports a recent visit with Dr. Clara Greenough, member of the education department at Cheney Normal, who is investigating health education in a number of schools in the United States.

The students from Grays Harbor County attending W. S. C. have formed a club known as the Grays Harbor County Club.

Cheney Normal Well Maintained Says Visiting Wenatchee Editor

That Cheney Normal is one of the most efficiently conducted institutions in the state is the opinion of Rufus Wood, editor of the Wenatchee World, who recently visited the Normal. The following article appeared in the World of November 30:

"People in this particular section of the state who want to see an exceptionally well maintained institution should make a visit to the Cheney State Normal School. It is only a short drive from Spokane, and those who drive to Spokane will find the trip only a few miles farther to swing down by Cheney. And they ought to do it. For years I have heard of the Cheney Normal and of N. D. Showalter, the head of the institution. I knew that Showalter was a man well and favorably known by the educators of the country. But never did I fully appreciate the man until the opportunity was presented for going over the school under his supervision. And I came away with the opinion that Cheney Normal is one of the best supervised public institutions that I have ever visited. Fred Kamp, who was with me, came back with the same opinion.

"Suppose I should tell you that the students of Cheney Normal are actually getting their board and room for $25 per month! But I am going to tell you more than that. It's not only good board, but conditions in every way approach those in the best and highest priced hotels in the country. And on $25 per month!

"And that isn't all. That is only part of the story. Hold your breath. For with that $25 per month the young men in the Cheney Normal—150 of them—are not only getting their board and room—but from the SURPLUS THEY ARE ACTUALLY PAYING FOR THE REMARKABLE BUILDING IN WHICH THEY ARE HOUSED! If there is a better record to be found anywhere in the country, I've never seen it. That's what is being done by one state institution in the state of Washington!

"If the people of the state actually knew what is being done by a real executive in the person of N. D. Showalter, they would stop and doff their hats to him, as we did when we left.

Buildings? There are buildings worth $750,000. But the most of the buildings have been erected from moneys saved by exceptional executive management.

"And as the average person reads about this $25 per month, for board, room and washing, I can almost read the question mark on the face of each

MR. HAWK'S ADDRESS FAVORABLY RECEIVED

Talk at Okanogan Institute Highly Praised by the Wenatchee World.

In commenting upon an address delivered by Mr. R. F. Hawk of the Normal extension department, at the Okanogan county institute recently, the Wenatchee World of December 3 says:

"The Garment," a subject assigned Professor Raymond F. Hawk for Wednesday morning, was different from what might be expected under such a title. By the clever use of metaphors and similes and inferences that could not be misunderstood, Mr. Hawk made his talks unusually interesting and was extremely popular with his audiences. The underlying thought in his talks was directed toward helping the teachers realize their own ability and importance in the community.

"We will think of life," he said in supplying the connecting link between his subject and his remarks, "as the making of a garment. There are three important things to consider: first, the use to which the garment is to be put; second, the pattern; and third, the wear that you expect to get out of the garment.

"How many of you feel that you are teacher's material? Every graduate of a college or Normal school is not a teacher. There must be something back of the individual that directs him in his work. If there are any of you who now feel, after having some experience, that you are not the teaching type, now is the time to change your vocation."

"Mr. Hawk was gifted with unusual ability to paint word pictures that were both illustrative and amusing, and his talks were of an inspiring nature."

Yep Kanum Club Elects

The Yep Kanum Club had a special meeting Thursday, and made plans for the winter quarter. The following officers were elected: Harriet Macomber, president; Lorene Murray, secretary-treasurer; Cora Carbaugh, photographer; Ellen Collins, hikes committee; Ellen Murphy, club reporter.

Sacajawea and Tsalina Meet

Sacajawea Camp held a social meeting Monday night. Part of the time was spent in learning to tie knots for honors, and the rest in playing games and eating the refreshments prepared by Helga Johnson.

one—as to the quality of the board and room. Here is the surprising feature of it! Everything is as clean as a brand new whistle. In the bedrooms everything is immaculate. You would actually think you were in a hotel which charges from $3 to $10 a day for the room alone and as much more for the table service.

"And how is it done? System—system—system! We found that two young women did the cooking for 150 young women. Two women do the cooking for 75 young men. In the kitchen the work is done by machinery. A machine kneads the bread and mashes the potatoes. Electric ovens cook the food.

"When a meal is served and all gather around the tables, one person takes a shift at the head of the table and does the serving. When the meal is finished the dishes are passed to the head of the table and the dishes taken to the kitchen by one of those at the table.

"Every dish is carefully placed in order and machines are used wherever practicable to eliminate work. The whole thing is like clock work. Each person makes his or her own bed. Many sleep in the fine big sleeping porches.

"The food products are brought direct from the farmers. Here is another saving. And they come in fresh every day. In the basement are irons and boards provided where the young men may press their own suits.

"Even the lighting and power is down to the minimum. It is bought at wholesale at one cent per kilowatt hour and distributed over the entire campus by a distribution system maintained by the college.

"The young men and young women who attend Cheney Normal are learning something that cannot be learned in books—they are learning system, economics, team work, and how to get the most of a dollar.

"N. D. Showalter has been president of the Cheney Normal for 12 years. In only one place could we see where he has fallen down—and that is that he has been a poor advertiser. He needs a press agent. He has a proper basis for a reputation that might just as well be countrywide."

ORA OGLE

One of Cheney's most successful barbers, opened a new shop in March, one year ago, on East First street, running one chair. On October 1, this year, he removed to 114 Normal avenue, and is now operating a two-chair business, and is laying plans for an enlargement to take care of his increasing trade.

SANTA CLAUS VISITS AT MONROE HALL

Delivers Sewing Machines, Telephones, Dolls, And Other Christmas Gifts.

Christmas was celebrated by the girls at Monroe Hall on Saturday night, December 15.

Each corridor was responsible for decorating an assigned part of the living room, and at 9 o'clock the work began. Pinned to each window was a red poinsetta. A large red bell hung at each doorway, and vases of Oregon Grape leaves were placed about the room. Although many a tender finger was pricked, popcorn was strung for the tree, which sparkled with tinsel and ornaments.

When the living room was in Christmas order, the girls sat around the fireside to sing Christmas carols until Saint Nick appeared.

About 10:30, bells were heard, and soon Santa himself came in with packages and socks of "goodies" for the girls "who were made of sugar and spice and everything nice," he said. Mrs. Kate Roberts acted as Santa Claus, and was assisted in passing out the gifts by some of his most obedient helpers.

The presents consisted of miniature sewing machines, telephones, dolls, bugs, and joke match boxes. Special gifts of red and white striped candy were presented to Miss Wilson and Miss Patterson.

Refreshments of hot chocolate and cookies were served at the close of the Christmas eve.

At a meeting of the Echo staff of Spokane College last Tuesday it was decided to organize a press club.

BASKETBALL

The first varsity basketball game of the season is to be played tonight. We play the team from a school that last year turned out a championship collegiate team. To be successful we must give the team our unqualified support. Let's show what a Savage school spirit we have.

This season's schedule includes more teams of higher calibre than those on any previous schedule. This means we must give backing of a higher calibre than before in order to be as victorious. We can do better than that. We can give backing that will make us more successful than ever, even with a more strenuous schedule.

In the gymnasium we have a better opportunity for cooperative rooting than on the athletic field. Students are grouped together at the basketball games, making it easier to yell. Let's raise the auditorium with our cheering. We need new yells. If you can concoct any, hand them in. Now that we have a school name the next step is to make songs and yells using the name. Let's put our heads together and originate some new ones.

IF IT FITS YOU, WEAR IT

A certain class at Cheney Normal—in fact, the largest class of that school—recently held an election. This class contains over three hundred members. Twenty-five voted at the meeting. What unforeseen catastrophe, what unparalleled disaster, so disabled and injured the remaining two hundred and seventy-five that they could not attend an election? Was peace so sweet, was life so dear, that they dared not risk them by gracing a class meeting with their smiling physiognomies? Did Study urge her case so violently that Time seemed rare as heaven's ethereal pleasures? Or must we unwillingly accuse them of that insidious fault so little known and yet so terrible, non-interest in their class, its activities, their school and its fate?

Whatever is discovered to be the cause of this extraordinary phenomena, certainly one here finds an unequalled opportunity to engrave his name deep in the annals of the school, by inculcating, fostering, and developing in the indisposed members of this class those ideals, habits, attitudes and time-honored institutional traditions, which experience has proved invaluable.

THE NON-DANCE PLAY HOUR

The non-dance play hour is now a regular Normal function. Although it was established for the benefit of those who do not dance, all students are urged to attend.

Each quarter various non-dance affairs, such as two all-school functions, and various class and club parties, are scheduled.

The non-dance play hour has recently been added to this list. It has proved to be a success. To keep it successful we need the support of every student.

Attendance at non-dance play hours will be beneficial to prospective teachers who will be expected to be leaders in their communities.

Students who complain because there are few activities for those who do not dance should seize this opportunity.

It is up to the students to support the non-dance play hour. Interest and attendance grow at each function. Come and join the merry throng.

VACATION

After vacation you will be glad to get back into the harness and will give an extra hard push. Or will you be worn out from having a good time? What is a vacation for if not to have a good time and a change from the usual? Don't let your intelligence function again until it must. Give it a good rest and maybe you will accomplish more when you get back.

YOUR MONEY'S WORTH

The Normal School is trying to provide students with amusement through the movies. In order to insure the continuance of this form of entertainment, students must patronize our Normal movies. The are cheaper in price and just as good as the movies shown in city theaters. Don't be afraid of not getting your money's worth.

The Tattle Tale

Not a Hint

Girls, a merry Christmas and a marry leap year!

Savages

We are convinced that the right name was chosen for our school. Did you hear the dainty young ladies holler, "Kill 'em, kill 'em!" when Reed bumped into the L. & C. dusky guard?

We just discovered that in Biblical times there were costume houses. Remember where they rent their robes?

His Relief Map

It was a relief to see his face.

Apology

We wish to apologize to H. J. Quinn, Evan Holt, et. al., for our unkind remarks about their presence in the rotunda. We find that rotund means fat, and therefore a rotunda is a place for fat people.

A fruitless discussion is one where no one knows his apples.

What About It?

Dan says: "Give your best girl silk stockings for Christmas," but he doesn't guarantee to refund your money when she returns them.

Ask Miss Donaldson

It is rumored that Lloyd Burpee does supplementary work in Junior High School Methods. Something tells us it isn't all J. H. S. M.

Check It

Excess baggage: The drooping veil on your sweetheart's hat.

Dan Holt wants a bench put in the Cheney park. Why not in the lower rotunda.

Question for Debate: Resolved, that barber's bills exceed hairnet bills.

We would print the report that Mr. Eustis spends his time and ability coaching athletics, mostly time, if we didn't fear that Mr. Eustis and the editor would do battle, mostly Mr. Eustis, in which they would be severely injured, mostly the editor.

Election!

We sound the clarion call. All 100 per cent Normalites should go to the polls and vote—vote till it hurts—somebody. It make no difference who or what you vote for. We don't expect intelligence from you. But vote against somebody!

Which?

It has been suggested that we send the violators of parking regulations to the fourth floor. But that is Miss Donaldson's stronghold. We still have the heating plant or warming squad for them.

"The paradiser" wasted energy which might be turned to nobler uses in hunting five rhymes for every verse. We can't think of more than three rhymes at a time, even for words like "eyes."

They say some fellows around here ought to have a speedometer attached, so that we can tell how fast they're traveling. Stan Wynstra says he hasn't found anyone yet who couldn't keep up with him.

It has been commented on that the women go across the gym in bathing suits. Women have been arrested for less.

But It Doesn't Mean Anything
 Anna McHenry studies her English mighty hard.

We have a Journalism class now. Its object is to teach writers to write.

The boys at Sutton Hall Annex are having a fine time. Lager's cooking isn't so worse.

They're going to tag rough dancers at play hour.

What Cha Goin' to Do About It?

Normal men say girls must make all dates, etc., in leap year.

We'll be doggone lucky if we have enough to pay our own way.

Regarding the Davis-Stillson courtship

Now they do and now they don't.

Thank You

Is it Christmas spirit, or what, that makes people help us by telling us jokes for this colyum?

Q.: What is the Latin for Oh, the times, the manners?

A.: Oh, temperature, oh, morons.

Our new mama asks what a necker was.

Well, some people are dead from the neck down, some from the neck up, and a necker both ways.

Do You Know That—
